Conference: Ethics and Digitalization

Venice, 28 October 2019

When it comes to practical ethics, the best tourists are the ones who stay at home.

But Venice is an ethical and aesthetic experience that speaks to us through all the senses and the virtual space.

So we have put together a conference in Venice to embrace digitalization and cybersecurity, aesthetics and the cultural heritage.

Conference: Ethics and Digitalization

Speakers: Dr Mariarosaria Taddeo, Digital Ethics Lab, Oxford Internet Institute, Prof. Riccardo Pozzo, Philosophy, Verona University et al.

We will host the conference on the island of San Servolo, seat of the wonderful Venice International University.

Included:

Conference fee (28 October 2019)

Not included:

Travel to and from Venice, Vaporetto, hotel and meals.

When making a firm booking, please transfer the full price to the account of the Cultural Entrepreneurship Institute Berlin: IBAN DE75100500006603191448, BIC BELADEBE
